6,103,336. More specifically, the certificate is directed toward an error appearing in the reexamination certificate (6687th) which was issued therefor on March 3, 2009.

The error being corrected is in the dependency of claim 35, which should now be dependent from claim 23, rather than from claim 25. While claim 35 had been dependent from claim 25, claims 23 through 26 were renumbered by the Examiner prior to the issue of the reexamination certificate. Claim 25 was renumbered to be claim 23, and the dependencies of all claims dependent from claim 25, except that for claim 35, were changed to reflect this.

The error is respectfully submitted to be due to an Office mistake, and no fee is required.

Respectfully submitted,

John F. Gulbin
